

PRIVACY POLICY

We, at Certified Green Partners (CGP), recognize that privacy is important.

This policy describes the ways we collect, store, use and protect your personal information. We may amend this policy at any time by posting a revised version on our website. The revised version will be effective at the time we post it. We last modified this Policy on August 9, 2009.

How we collect information about you:

When you sign in as a "Green Friend" or soliciting to become a Certified Green Partner, we collect the following types of information from you:

Contact information - your name, address, phone, email, industry information and other similar information.

We don't use any kind of "cookies"

How we protect and store personal information:

We store and process your personal information on our CGP server, and we protect it by maintaining physical, electronic and procedural safeguards in compliance with applicable US federal and state regulations. We use computer safeguards such as firewalls and data encryption, we enforce physical access controls to our buildings and files, and we authorize access to personal information only for those employees who require it to fulfill their job responsibilities.

How we use the personal information we collect:

Our primary purpose in collecting personal information is to provide you with a safe, smooth, efficient, and customized experience. We may use your personal information to:

- Send you information and notices regarding Green services and products.
- Green news updates, seminars and events notices, targeted marketing, service update notices, and promotional offers.

How we share personal information with other parties:

We may share your personal information with:

- Certified Green Partners, Non-Profit and Not-for-Profit institutions that we partner with for the exclusive use of pre-approved eco-friendly notices of products and services.
- We do not share your contact information with third parties for promotional purposes, and we will not do so in the future.
- Law enforcement, government officials, or other third parties when
 - We are compelled to do so by a subpoena, court order or similar legal procedure
 - We need to do so to comply with law
 - We believe in good faith that the disclosure of personal information is necessary to prevent physical harm or financial loss, to report suspected illegal activity, or to investigate violations of our User Agreement.

CGP will not sell or rent any of your personal information to third parties in the normal course of doing business and only shares your personal information with third parties as described in this policy.

Federal and state laws allow you to restrict the sharing of your personal information in certain instances. However, these laws also state that you cannot restrict other types of sharing. Because we have chosen to refrain from certain types of data sharing, the only type of sharing of your personal information that you may restrict is as follows:

You can also control how we use your contact information to market our services to you in the notifications preferences.
